

The National Science Foundation & the National Nanotechnology Initiative issue a challenge

GENERATION NANO: SMALL SCIENCE, SUPERHEROES

WE NEED YOU TO CHOOSE A NANOTECHNOLOGY-ENABLED MISSION FOR AN ORIGINAL SUPERHERO

- WHO: A competition for high school students – individuals or teams of two to three.
- WHAT: A written entry, a 90-second video and a 2-3 page comic strip introducing the superhero and the student's nanotechnology-enabled mission.
- WHEN: Opens Oct. 5, 2016; submissions due by Jan. 31, 2017, at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Standard Time.
- WHERE: Learn more and submit entries at nsf.gov/GenNano.
- WHY: To promote an early interest in nanoscale science, technology, engineering, and mathematics.
